WEEKLY BULLETIN

SEPTEMBER 29TH, 2024

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE HOLY CROSS

الأحد الثالث من زمن الصليب المقدس

Mt 24: 23-31 - Ph 3:17-21, 4:1 - Daniel 7:9-14

The Church invites us this week to reflect on the end of the age and the arrival of the Son of Man. The Gospel is warning us of false Prophets, "Do not believe them." Nothing has changed from the days of Saint Matthew until now; we still find false prophets claiming to be the saviours of humanity. That is when we should hear the voice of Jesus saying, "I warned you." Our existence is enlightened by our spiritual life. The disciples asked Jesus about the end of the age. Before answering, Jesus warned them of such a question and such a worry. Rather than anxiety, we must have faith and hope as our redeeming qualities. God is coming of course, like the lightning appears clearly and suddenly. There is no need to look for Him or anxiously searching to find the place or the time of His arrival. Jesus, the Son of Man, the Judge, the Liberator from evil, and the Saviour of the world will gather humanity around Him. With His death and Resurrection, a new age of the Kingdom of God begins, and we are His children. Our place is among the chosen ones. "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Friday, October 4th, 2024, Mass at 5:00 PM

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring love. Where there is offence, let me bring pardon. There is discord, let me bring union. Where there is error, let me bring truth. Where there is doubt, let me bring faith. Where there is despair, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness, let me bring your light. Where there is sadness, let me bring joy. O Master, let me not seek as much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love, for it is in giving that one receives, it is in self-forgetting that one finds, it is in pardoning that one is pardoned, it is in dying that one is raised to eternal life.
